

The Sinclair network is exercising unfair bias in its plan to air the anti-Kerry film which is not only untrue, but clearly a political trick to deceive voters in the last days before the election. Say 'goodbye' to integrity of the media.